

The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, May 30. 1705.

From the Paris Gazette, May 30.

Warsaw, May 1.

TIS reported as certain, that the Bishop and Palatin of Culm have espoused the Party of King Stanislaus, and that they will shortly go to Rawitz to the King of Sweden: Which is the more surprizing, because that Palatin was sent Ambassador to Muscovy by King King Augustus, against the Opinion of most of the Senators. Letters from Cracow of the 27th of last Month tell us that Prince Lubomirski Starost of Spiski arriv'd there some days before, and was met a League out of that City by General Stromberg. Besides his own Troops, that Starost has with him 2000 Swedes, of which the King of Sweden has given him the Command; and who has likewise given him the greatest part of the Contributions levied of the Palatinate of Cracow, where the Swedes demanded 6 Crowns of every House. That Starost having on several Occasions favoured the Malecontents of Hungary, they had certain advice at Cracow that Prince Ragotski will send to him 3 or 4000 Men. These Letters add, that the long Absence of King Augustus, who was not expected in Poland before the End of June, discouraged those that were best affected to him; and that 'tis reported Prince Lubomirski great General is dispos'd to sign the Confederacy of Russia, form'd by Potoski Palatin of Kiowia. They write from Zamoscia the 24th of last Month, that Prince Lubomirski had published Orders for the Troops of the Crown to draw together the 10th of this Month at Horodlo on the Bug, for the defence of the King and the Republick: but that afterwards he had a long secret Conference with the Palatin Potoski.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated June 2.

Cracow, May 10. This Week a great Number of the Nobility of this Palatinat came hither, to desire to be exempted from paying Contributions to the Swedes, to which General Stromberg will not consent. That General has had a Conference at Wisnic with the Palatine of Kiowia, who is expected shortly in this City, as is also the Starost Spisky. The Swedes have summon'd this Palatinat to declare which Party they will be for by Whitsontide at furthest. P. S. several of the Nobility of this Palatinat having declar'd in Favour of the Swedes, General Stromberg has excus'd them from paying pecuniary Contributions for one Month, but not from furnishing Provisions. Whereupon they have sent Deputies to the King of Sweden.

Poznan, May 10. 'Tis reported the King of Sweden and the new King Stanislaus will set out from Rawitz the 22d of this Month, to go to Warsaw, there to confirm the said new King's Election, and from thence to go to Cracow where his Coronation is to be performed. In some little Diets that have been held, Complaints have been made against the Apostolical Nuncio, for causing the Bishop of Poznan to be sent to Rome, which they look upon to be an unjust Proceeding: And the Marshalls of those Diets are charg'd to write a Letter to the Pope in the Name of all the Nobility, to desire him to give that Bishop his Liberty and to send him back to Poland.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated June 2.

Leipsick, May 23. The King of Poland set out from hence the 21st. to go to Torgou to his Queen, whence their Majesties will go to Lichtenberg, to make a Visit to the Electorels-Dowager. After which their Majesties will go to Karelbad; where 'tis said the Swedish Generals Mardefeld and Reenschildd are expected, with the Countess of Piper and some other Swedish Ladies. Letters from Poland advise, that the Party of Indifferents, of which Potocki Waywod of Kiowia is Leader, are like to be very dangerous Enemies of King Augustus, seeing the said Waywod and his Brother have already joyn'd the Swedes with a Body of 5 or 6000 Men: These Letters add, that the Swedes design to pursue the Saxon Troops in the Palatinat of Lublin, but that the latter are prepared to defend themselves. The Starost Spisky of the House of Lubomirski, is arrived at Cracow with 4000 Men; Monsieur Melander, the King of Sweden's Commissary General, receiv'd him with all imaginable Honours: 'tis said he expects more Troops from his Starosty. The Detachment of Saxon Troops that are to serve on the upper Rhine, will speedily begin their March thither.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated May 30.

Hamburg, May 26. Letters from Poland advise that the Cardinal Primate had at length resolved to confirm the Election of King Stanislaus, and to Crown him, provided the King of Sweden would declare: 1. That he will for 5 Years defend Poland from any Invasion by King Augustus. 2. That he will raise no more Contributions in that Kingdom. And 3. That he will use his best Endeavours to prevent the said Cardinal's suffering any Damage from the Court of Rome. To which the King of Sweden is said to have return'd Answer. 1. That he will constantly keep 8000 Men in Pomerania for the Defence of Poland. 2. That as soon as the Swedes are march'd against the Muscovites, all Contributions shall cease. 3. That concerning the last Proposition a Deputation shall be sent to the next Congress. They write from Dantzick, that the Cardinal has actually declar'd for the new Elected King; and by his Universalia Conven'd a Congress or General Diet to meet the 25th of June. The Swedes that are at Cracow, being augmented by the Troops of Potocki and Spisky to 25000 Men, are very importunate with the Nobility of that part of the Country, to prevail with them to renounce the Confederacy of Sendomir, to withdraw their Allegiance from King Augustus, and accept of Stanislaus for their King.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated June 2.

Hambourg, May 29. Letters from Poland inform us, that the Muscovites have laid 2 Bridges over the Nieper at Grodno and Lipkow: That the Cardinal Primate has openly declar'd for the King of Sweden and Stanislaus, and is preparing to go shortly from Dantzick to Warsaw: And that upon the Court of Rome's having sent an Order to his said Eminency and the Bishops of Poland, not to concern themselves in the Coronation of the new King Stanislaus, the Starost of Vrouwstad Radziewski has made a formal Protestation against the Pope's intermeddling in this Affair, either immediately or by his Nuncio in Poland.

land. The pretended King Stanislaus has sent printed Universalia to the Polish Army, summoning them to be ready to attend him into the Field at a certain Place and Day. The Magistrates of Dantzick have at length resolv'd to deliver to the Swedish Resident, the Baggage of King Augustus which has been a pretty while in their Hands.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated June 2.

Dresden, May 27. The King of Poland return'd hither from Leipzick the 25th; and the 30th Instant will set out for Carelsbad. 'Tis talk'd the Bishop of Ermeland, who has all along adher'd steadfastly to his said Polish Majesty, will shortly go to Rome, to make great Complaints to the Pope against the Cardinal Primate who has publickly declar'd for the King of Sweden and his Adherents. His Swedish Majesty who continues at Rawitz, has detach'd 5 or 6000 Men to join the Troops he has in Prussia, Samogitia, and Courland, and observe the Motions of the Muscovites that are in Lithuania: but 'tis thought this will not make the Czar alter his Design of besieging Riga: 'Tis believ'd his Czarish Majesty is arriv'd by this Time at Grodno in Lithuania, and that the Artillery he intends to employ in the said Siege (which Artillery consists of 70 Cannon and Mortars in Proportion,) is already embark'd on the Duna.
